Kodak, Xeikon, Canon and Pitney Bowes to present at APS22 Theaters!

August 11, 2022 (Columbus, Ohio)

Americas Print Show 2022 will kick off in less than a week with an outstanding lineup of Educational Sessions featuring Warren Werbitt, Kelly Mallozzi, Richard Romano, Bill Farquarhson, Deborah Corn, and other notable industry influencers, but education and the sharing of leading technology and products doesn't stop there.

APS22 exhibitors will also be making presentations throughout the first two days of the show on one of the two Theaters strategically located on the exhibitor show floor. Presentations start at 11:00 AM on both days and run for most of the day. The presentations will cover topics including digital innovations, environmental concerns, business and marketing strategies, USPS, and more. Presentations include Canon, Kodak, Xeikon, Pitney Bowes, Good2Go Software, and IPW.

Theater stages will also be the site for Deborah Corn's SnapChats on Wednesday and Thursday and providing exhibitors the opportunity to share their company story with APS22 attendees.

"APS22 is one of the first shows in several years to bring Associations, printers, manufacturers, suppliers, and educators together and we are excited to welcome attendees to this inaugural show," says APS22 President, Jim Cunningham. "People attending APS22 will have the opportunity to hear from some of the industry's best speakers and network with industry peers."

FOR EXHIBITORS

To join our quickly growing, power-packed line-up, exhibitors can reserve a premier booth location today at a substantially reduced rate compared to other industry shows.
