Americas Print Show Announces Fall 2023 Hall of Fame Summit & 2024 Industry Trade Show Dates

March 6, 2023 – Americas Print Show will once again partner with industry manufacturers, associations, industry influencers, educators, and printers to expand on the great success of the inaugural three-day event held in August 2022.

Americas Print Show, APS announces 2024 Show will be held on Wednesday, May 8, and Thursday, May 9, 2024. Americas Print Show is also partnering with Print Across America in October 2023 for the “Hall of Fame Summit”. Both events will be held at the Huntington Convention Center in Cleveland, Ohio.

Watch for more details on both events and new partners for APS 2024 in the coming months!

Americas Print Show 2024

Americas Print Show 2024 will once again be a partnership of industry segments. The show is positioned to be a collaboration of visioning and thought leadership with nationally renowned speakers, experts and industry leaders sharing their experiences and addressing the industry’s most significant issues, including Workforce Development.

APS 2023 “Hall of Fame” Summit

APS is also pleased to announce the “Hall of Fame Summit” scheduled for this Fall on October 25th, International Print Day, and will be held in conjunction with Print Across America. The APS “Hall of Fame Summit” is a one-day event being held at the Huntington Convention Center. Attendees will have the opportunity to visit the Pro Football Hall of Fame the day before the Summit, and the event will wrap up with a reception at the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame located across the highway from the Huntington Center. The Summit will feature industry-leading speakers and an un-conference session in the afternoon.

Print Across America’s mission is to create a unified celebration of print by facilitating, fostering and supporting open house events across the country. Print Across America looks to share the power of print at the local level and create a connection with the community.

About Americas Print Show

Americas Print Show successfully held its inaugural industry trade show in August of 2022 with an exciting three-day industry event in Columbus, Ohio. APS22 focused on showcasing the latest technologies, building connections, and growth in the print and graphics community.

Key exhibitors included Canon, Millcraft, Digital Print Solutions, Bindtech Inc., Add- Jet, Graphco, Xeikon, Pitney Bowes, and Kodak. APS 22 also partnered with numerous industry trade associations including the National Print & Sign Owners Association, APAN, and PGSF.

Education was a key focal point of the inaugural show and presenters included Deborah Corn, Intergalactic Ambassador to The Printerverse; Bill Farquharson, Sales Coaching and Leadership Development; Mark Potter, CEO of Conduit, Inc.; and industry leaders Travis Mylakar, and Greg Lovenshimer President and CEO of Millcraft.

About the Venue

The Huntington Convention Center of Cleveland is one of the most modern and convenient conference centers in North America. Located in the heart of a renewed Downtown Cleveland and attached to the Cleveland Hilton Downtown, the center opened in 2013 and features over 225,000 square feet of exhibit halls and supports forty (40) meeting rooms, and five (5), ballrooms. The center is a LEED Gold facility and is a gigabyte rated facility.
